JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 26, 1905.

SHEA UPHELD BY THE JUDGE

IN REFUSAL TO ANSWER VARIOUS QUESTIONS

Head of Teamsters' Union Saved by Fact He Is Under Indictment—Others Declared in Contempt

Chicago, May 25.—President Shea of the International Teamsters' union was upheld today by Judge Kohlman of the federal court in his refusal to answer questions before Master in Chancery Sherman. Shea is now under indictment in the criminal court, and Judge Kohlman declared that answers to some of the questions might prejudice the hearing of his case.

In the same decision which excused Shea the court ruled that Bernard Muligan, president of the express drivers' union, and John Donohue, member of the same union, had refused to answer questions which could in any way connect them with any criminal proceedings and they were therefore in contempt of court.

During the hearing the court room was crowded with labor leaders and members of the teamsters' union and many representatives of the employers. At the conclusion of the hearing a large crowd gathered about Attorney Mayer, who had asked the court to commit the men for contempt. President Shea edged his way through the crowd to the attorney and they shook hands.

"Well, I got your conspirators," said the lawyer with a laugh.

"Yes, but you didn't get me," answered Shea.

The hearing before Master in Chancery Sherman will be resumed tomorrow morning.

NO DISORDER.

The strike did not spread to any great extent to day and there was practically no disorder. A number of lumber firms made a few deliveries, but did not attempt anything like their normal amount of business.

For the first time since the commencement of the strike a large number of coal wagons handled by colored teamsters passed through the downtown streets without police protection. None of them were molested in any way. Large street cars also made deliveries, going even into the suburbs of the city without guards, and no trouble was experienced.

FEW VOLUNTEERS.

Mayor Dunne and Chief of Police O'Neill did not meet to day with the response expected when they called yesterday for a thousand volunteers for additional policemen. Not over one hundred men responded and only three-quarters of these proved acceptable. In the lumber districts several concerns when offered police protection refused to accept it, saying it was not possible for them to make deliveries unless their wagons were guarded by soldiers. Chief of Police O'Neill replied he would not force officers upon them and that they could wait for soldiers if they so desired, but that he would cause their yards and territory around them to be patrolled by his officers.

There is no light no apparent prospect in any direction of settlement of the strike. Express companies absolutely refuse to decide in the slightest degree from their declaration that none of their old men will be re-employed and no move looking toward settlement has been started in any other direction.

Commitment of President Shea and other labor leaders for alleged contempt of court was formally asked before Federal Judge Kohlman today. The judge, however, decided to hear arguments on both sides before entering any order.

A new problem in the strike situation developed to day, several smaller lumber companies positively refusing to accept police protection, intimating not a wagon would be sent out until state troops are called.

WILD NOT BE TAKEN BACK.

New York, May 25.—Senator Platt, president of the United States Express company, said to day striking express drivers in Chicago would never be taken back by employers.

ADVICE GIVEN BY CORTELYOU

REGARDING ORGANIZATION OF POSTAL EMPLOYEES

Must Have for Their Object Improvements in the Service or Be of Purely Fraternal or Beneficial Character.

Washington, May 25.—The national association of postmasters of the second and third class, which met here to day, was addressed by Postmaster General Cortelyou, who outlined his position regarding organization of postal employees and the part such employees may take in politics. He said:

"Organizations within the department to receive its sanction must have for their object improvements in the service or be of purely fraternal or beneficial character. With any other purpose in view they are detrimental to the service, to their members and to the public. I believe the object of this meeting to be a worthy one and I have come here to day because I want you to feel the postmaster general is interested in every proper effort to raise the standard of efficiency in the postoffice department."

"My duty as head of the department is to insist upon loyal and efficient service from every employee as an individual and without any thought of his affiliations with any organization. I recognize every employee as an individual to be appointed, advanced, transferred and in all respects treated upon merit. It must be clearly understood officials of the department and not officials or members of any organization are the proper persons to present the department's needs to congress. If I find that any class of employees are inadequately compensated I will do whatever I properly can to secure increased compensation. On the other hand, I will recommend curtailment in any branch of the service where compensation seems out of proportion to the work done, and this applies not only to all classes of employees, but to individuals. They would be unfit for their positions if they did not take a proper interest in public affairs; but proper interest in public affairs as a matter of course bars them from participation in factional differences or any other political action that would bring discredit upon the service or show lack of appreciation of their relation to it."

"Efficient as the postal service is there is still a lack of good business, as in some of its branches many years of routine methods have brought about an inertia that is difficult to overcome. I think we have altogether too much red tape in the department. I think we go around too many corners instead of making straight cuts to results. But these weaknesses and difficulties should be but incentives to every man and woman in the service to raise its standard, that it may be made the great business establishment the people have a right to expect it to be."

Postmaster Merritt, of this city, made the address of welcome and Richard F. Lawson, postmaster at Birmingham, Ill., responded.

The postmasters were received at the white-house by President Roosevelt.

MANY BANKS HIT

Seventy-one Institutions Creditors of Defunct Boston Bank—Liabilities Nearly Two Million.

Boston, May 25.—Seventy-one banks and trust companies, most of them in Massachusetts, but several located in various parts of the country, are among creditors of the banking firm of Burnett, Cummings & Co., which to day filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy with liabilities of $1,714,383. Assets are stated to be uncertain. Creditors have been given to understand they will not exceed $200,000. It is added they will be of any value whatever.

The attorney for the firm said the cause of the failure was building and financing of various street railways in thinly settled districts.

There are thirty-two Massachusetts savings banks in the list of creditors and thirteen Massachusetts national banks. It is understood securities given the banks for their loans were bonds of the Massachusetts Securities company, which in turn were secured by notes in bankrupt electric railways.

Among western institutions affected are: Chicago Savings bank, $3,000; State Savings bank, Ann Arbor, Mich., $1,315; Western trust and Savings bank, Chicago, $1,886; Fort Dearborn National bank, Chicago, $788; State Bank of Chicago, Chicago, $1,250.

ENDED HIS LIFE

Rothwell Palford, Suspected of Murdering Daniel Barry at Savannah Commits Suicide

Savannah, Ill., May 25.—Rothwell Palford, reputed to be the wealthiest citizen of Savannah, committed suicide to day a few moments after being questioned by a newspaper man regarding the whereabouts of a revolver with which he was suspected of having slain Attorney Daniel S. Barry, former leading member of the Illinois legislature. Palford had denied any knowledge of the killing of Barry, but became agitated when questioned concerning the revolver. The story had been widely circulated Barry was killed as the result of attention paid by him to a married woman.

Palford on arriving at his store to day found a reporter waiting for him with queries as to the revolver. As soon as the interviewer had left Palford hurried home and going to the hay loft of his barn shot himself dead.

For two months Palford has shown signs of mental strain. Palford's death ends his life of a man who rose from a poor boy to the position of one of the wealthiest men in this section of Illinois. Besides owning much valuable real estate in Savannah, he was president of the Commercial bank and owner of an electric light system.

A resolution was adopted empowering the grand master to appoint a committee to prepare plans and receive bids for a permanent home for indigent members of the order. The report of this committee is to be submitted to subordinate lodges and if adopted by a two-thirds majority the home will be erected.

WAR NEWS

Dispatch Sent From Manila of Naval Battle Not Confirmed.

London, May 25, 4:30 a. m.—No news has reached London up to this hour regarding the movements of the Russian and Japanese fleets or in any way confirmatory of the rumor from Manila that the fleets had met south of Formosa and that the Japanese had been defeated.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—Admiral Avellan, head of the Russian admiralty department, confirms the Associated Press dispatches stating that the Russian fleet is standing north to give battle to Togo. He considers it possible news to the effect that two fleets have met may be received any day. Avellan reaffirms official denial of the report that the Russian fleet has broken down and asked to be relieved.

Admiral Brillet left St. Petersburg for Vladivostok to day by special train. The admiral expects to reach his port before the Russian fleet's arrival. Several train loads of coal are on the way to Vladivostok.

WAR REPORTS.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—The admiralty has no information confirmatory of the Manila report of defeat of Togo south of Formosa. The story is not credited in the best informed naval circles.

INSURANCE DECISION.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 25.—According to the opinion of the supreme court of Missouri, fraternal and assessment life insurance companies have not the right to revoke policies upon which three or more annual payments have been made.

In the case upon which the decision was rendered the policy was taken out in May, 1886. After meeting three payments the payment due in June, 1890, was not met and the insured died in January, 1900. The company refused to honor the claim, but the lower court held that there was a net value to the policy sufficient to carry it beyond the date of death and rendered judgment in favor of the beneficiary.

CAPTAIN HOBSON MARRIED.

Tuxedo Park, N. J., May 25.—The marriage of Miss Grizella Houston Hull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hull, to Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson took place to day.

PHILADELPHIA'S GAS LEASE WAR

FEELING BECOMES MORE INTENSIFIED

Mayor Ejects Former Directors and Installs Men Chosen Tuesday—Given Ovation by People of the City.

Philadelphia, May 25.—Bitter feeling engendered by the gas lease fight was intensified to day when Mayor Weaver practically ejected from the office of the departments of public safety and public works his two former directors and again installed the men appointed by him on Tuesday night. While the mayor was ordering his old directors out of their office his attorneys appeared in the supreme court and obtained a special supersedeas suspending the temporary injunction granted the old directors yesterday by the county court.

Another dramatic incident of the day was the grand ovation given Mayor Weaver by several thousand persons on his way from the city to halt to the Union league for lunch. It was a sensational demonstration and was looked upon by those opposed to the lease as indication of the trend of popular sentiment.

In the thick of the fight this afternoon came the story, but from where no one appears to know, that the mayor is to be impeached. For what particular offense was not clearly defined.

Organization leaders say they continue to "stand pat" on the gas lease and that their ranks are solid all along the line. On the other hand, Mayor Weaver announced late to day he had assurances that the vote in both council chambers when his veto is considered will be changed materially from the vote taken last week. One councilman publicly announced to day that he would change his vote, and it is understood that the mayor has direct promise from several others that they will sustain him.

In all sections of the city reform organizations and newspapers have aroused citizens to take a hand in the fight. Councilmen who favor the gas lease are having a hard time of it. They are being swamped with protests and delegations of neighbors are calling on them at their homes or places of business or are holding them up on the street. Many of them reply that they are for the lease so long as Commissioner Durham, head of the organization men, is for it.

It was reported to day President Roosevelt will be asked to issue a special warning to federal employees to keep out of the gas lease fight. It is charged by the anti-gas lease people that the organization is calling upon federal officials to use their influence with the councilmen in behalf of the gas lease. This is denied by the organization leaders. Leaders against the organization say they know government employees are bringing pressure to bear on councilmen and that if it continues that a delegation will go to Washington to see the president.

Mayor Weaver is receiving hundreds of letters and telegrams of congratulation from Republicans as well as Democrats. As a result of the agitation against the lease three select and six common councilmen have announced their intention to change their votes on the lease. This would make the vote in the select council stand 34 for the lease, 8 against, and in the common council 36 for, 14 against. It takes two-thirds to pass the ordinance over the mayor's veto.

WILL SELL PROPERTY.

Detroit, May 25.—Judge Rohrer in the Wayne circuit court to day notified attorneys in a suit brought by the Union Trust company of this city to foreclose a mortgage on the property of the Detroit Driving club, including the well known Grosvenor Point race track, that he would order the property sold at auction. The property has been in litigation several years. The Union Trust company brought suit to foreclose a trust mortgage given to secure $75,000 in bonds.

MINNESOTA TRAGEDY.

Wheaton, Minn., May 25.—A young man named Herman Spert, from Okeoka and a girl about 15 years old named Slidewacker were found three miles south of here this afternoon, the man dead, having been shot in the mouth with a revolver, and the girl seriously wounded with two or three bullets in the abdomen. The girl is still alive and claims she killed the man and shot herself and that she wished to die as they had wished to die together.

PRESBYTERIANS

Message Sent Assembly by President Roosevelt—Meet Next Year at Des Moines

Winona Lake, Ind., May 25.—President Roosevelt sent a message to the Presbyterian general assembly to night through Henry B. F. McFarland, vice president of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia. The message was given at a popular meeting for laymen, at which McFarland spoke. The president expressed hope the day would soon come when all branches of the Presbyterian church would be united into one great body, and the assembly gave its approval in prolonged applause.

The proceedings to day were marked by two sharp contests, in which about fifty commissioners took part with speeches from the floor. One was over whether to name a general secretary to revive interest in young people's societies. Since it meant withdrawal of the societies from the interdenominational Christian Endeavor organization, a warm debate followed. It was also opposed for the reason it created a new office, and many of the speakers said the work should be carried on by the board of publication and Sabbath school work. It was finally agreed to have a committee consider the proposition and report at the next assembly.

The other contest was over the place of meeting, Des Moines, Iowa, being chosen over Columbus, Ohio, which had been recommended by the committee.

BROOKLYN HANDICAP

Easy Victory for Delhi, Owned by Keene—Race Worth $16,000 to Winner.

New York, May 25.—Delhi, last year's champion "milner," carried the Keene colors to an easy victory this afternoon at Gravesend in the Brooklyn handicap. The speedy son of Benbrush thereby enriched his owner in the sum of $16,000, while Ostlich, from the "Benton stable," captured second money, $2,500, and Gratiolito, the Columbia stable's candidate, won third, amounting to $1,500. About 20,000 were on the grounds.

Delhi was the favorite in the betting. As good as 4 to 1 could be had against his chances for a moment when the books opened, but a flood of wagers forced the price to 5 to 2 in a few minutes. The start was in the chute to the left stand. Colonel Giff drew the rail position and when the barrier went up showed for a brief space in front. Not for long, however, for Delhi rushed to the front. Savoy yards from home Ostlich, with Willie Knapp up, came with a great rush on the outside. The leaders evidently were exhausted and Ostlich ran up to them as though they had stopped. Half a dozen jumps from the finish he secured the second position from Gratiolito. Delhi's race, made without pace from the start, was very creditable, the mile and a quarter in 2:02.55, or one-fifth of a second better than the Pickay's time in the Brooklyn a year ago.

UNITED PRESBYTERIANS.

Washington, Iowa, May 25.—The feature of to day's session of the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church was presentation to Rev. W. C. Williams, of Burlington, the newly elected moderator of a gavel made from a piece of flooring from Libby prison. Attention of the assembly to day was occupied with routine business.

Dr. J. S. Spier, of West Elizabeth, Pa., was elected second clerk. First Clerk Dr. D. F. McGill, of Allegheny, Pa., is and Dr. A. G. Wallace, of Sewickley, is acting for him.

The time to day was taken up principally with bills and overtures. The report shows the church more active along spiritual and missionary lines; more strenuous work on the part of the church is called for.

A conference on foreign missions was held this evening.

ILLINOIS PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Chicago, May 25.—After listening to addresses by a number of members and electing officers the Illinois Press association adjourned this evening. Officers elected: President, John B. Cash of Sandwich; vice president, C. F. Baile of Monmouth; Edwin Dwyer of Rushville; Mary Davidson of Carthage; secretary, J. M. Page of Jerseyville; treasurer, W. H. Haven of Greenfield.

Indianapolis, May 25.—The supreme assembly uniform rank Knights of Pythias, now in convention here, decided this evening to hold the next national encampment in New Orleans in September, 1906. The meeting was devoted to routine business. Reports were made by Supreme Chancellor Shively of Richmond, Ind., Major General Carnahan and Adj. Gen. G. W. Powell.

SECRET LOBBYING.

Madison, Wis., May 25.—Governor La-follette to day sent to the legislature a message urging legislation that would destroy secret lobbying. The senate recently killed a bill drawn along lines of the governor's recommendations, but a new measure will now be presented.

RIOTS STILL IN PROGRESS

PEOPLE KILLED AND PROPERTY DAMAGED

Conflict Between Respectable and Disreputable Jews at Warsaw—Little Effort Made to Stop Riots.

Warsaw, May 25.—Jewish disorders here last night arose from attempt of a Jewish socialist organization called the Bund to purge the Hebrew district of all disreputable persons. Bunillas wrecked disorderly houses, cafes and other resorts. Fighting continued until midnight and recommenced this morning. Occasional clashes still occur, here has been considerable bloodshed.

Four more persons died to day the result of injuries received last night. Many people were wounded during to day's fighting.

Jewish disturbances continued all day, and were still in progress late to night. Eight persons have already been killed and one hundred wounded, nineteen seriously. Damage to property has been considerable. There has been no pillaging, but destruction of furniture has been absolute. Mobs armed with axes smashed doors and windows and brought furniture out on the streets, where they broke it into small pieces. Owners of the furniture in attempting to defend their belongings were attacked, beaten and even killed. Knives and revolvers were used freely and many persons were terribly injured.

Authorities took no steps to prevent the riots until late to night, when Cossacks fired on crowds at two points, wounding four persons.

A correspondent of the Associated Press spent several hours in the disturbed district, but did not see a single active policeman. During the day patrols occasionally appeared, but they regarded the proceedings as merely spectators.

The character of the disturbance is unprecedented. The whole affair is a conflict between respectable Jewish socialist classes and the disreputable Jewish element. Socialists determined on a crusade against undesirable persons of their own race, with the result that crowds of men and boys are now systematically ruining disreputable houses. Extraordinary scenes were witnessed late to night when crowds visited the better section of the city and demolished apartments filled with costly effects. Wardrobes, pianos and mirrors were thrown out of the windows. The mob in the streets left open spaces for the falling articles and to night completed the work of destruction. In one place a quantity of valuable jewelry was taken out and deliberately smashed with stones.

The whole affair was carefully organized. Leaders were supplied with addresses of owners of disreputable houses and secretly a single resort in Warsaw escaped destruction.

Quite a difference. By way of Cape Horn, the distance from New York to San Francisco is 14,800 miles, and yet millions of tons of freight are carried over that route. The Panama canal will reduce that distance to something like 5,000 miles, and the time of making the voyage from three months to 10 or 15 days.

What were the first rates of postage in the United States? From the organization of this department until 1810, the rates were as follows: Under 40 miles 8 cents; under 90 miles, 10 cents; under 150 miles, 12½ cents; under 300 miles, 17 cents; under 600 miles, 25 cents. The rates have been frequently changed since 1810.

FOUND DEAD.

Barry Adage: Yesterday afternoon the remains of a man were found lying in the woods pasture owned by T. C. Coffman and located about a mile north of this city. Jesse Mellon, who resides on the farm, was the first to discover the body, which was afterward identified as that of William Greene, a brother of J. M. Greene, of this city. The remains were in a horrible state of decomposition, indicating that he had been dead for several days. It is supposed to be a case of suicide.

William Greene had been an invalid for years and for several months was an inmate of the Pike county almshouse. He returned to Barry last week and it was noticeable that he was in a serious physical condition. The last seen of him about town was last Friday, when it is supposed he went to the pasture in which he was found. On a leaf of a pass-book he wrote the statement he was about to take his life owing to ill health and that no one was to blame. He probably cut his throat with a pocket-knife, although it could not be positively determined owing to his condition when found.

Coroner Huntley was expected here last night to hold the inquest.

GERMAN STATESMAN LOSING SIGHT

Berlin, May 25.—Eugene Richter, radical leader in the Reichstag since its foundation, is losing his eyesight. There is no hope seemingly that he will not become totally blind. Six months ago Richter suddenly retired from the editorship of the Zeitung, which he founded, and caused its name to be changed to the Deutsche Freie Presse, so that no one should still call it Richter's paper, and he ceased to appear in the Reichstag.

MAIN THOROUGHFARE.

To the Lewis and Clark Exposition June 1st to Oct. 15th, 1905, will be via the Union Pacific. This is not only the shortest way by many miles, but is also the scenic route, passing through some of the most charming scenery in the world.

The low rates made by the Union Pacific to Portland this summer offer the people of the east and Middle West an opportunity to visit the Pacific Northwest and see what a great country lies west of the Rocky mountains. It is a chance of a lifetime. There is also an opportunity en route to visit Yellowstone National Park, June 1st to September 15th. Inquire of W. G. Neimyer, S. WARM WEATHER HELPS

Get Rid of Catarrh by Using Hyomel.

Everyone who has catarrh should take advantage of the warm weather to get rid of this annoying and distressing disease. The right treatment, faithfully followed, in May or June, will benefit much more quickly than in the winter and early spring.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head and throat by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the germs of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Hyomel is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and the only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

When using Hyomel every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head and goes into the lungs, is charged with healing balsams that kill the catarrhal germs and soothes and allays all irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomel will show a decided improvement, and in a short time, especially if used at this season of the year, there will be no further trouble from catarrh.

IMPOSING CEREMONIES

institution of Masonry and the divine institution of the church. The grand chaplain offered prayer at the conclusion of the remarks of the grand master, and then the corner stone was elevated about five feet from its base. The grand treasurer came forward and deposited the box of contents and the stone was then lowered a third of the space at a time and after each halt the grand honors were given under the direction of the grand marshal. The deputy grand master and grand wardens then applied the square, level and plumb by which the stone was declared to be accurately set and reported to the grand master that the "craftsmen had done their duty." Then came the ceremony of the pouring on of the corn, wine and oil by the deputy grand master and wardens, and the final proclamation by the grand marshal that the corner stone had been duly laid according to the custom of Masonry.

ADDRESS OF GRAND ORATOR.

The grand master then introduced the grand orator, whose place was most ably filled on this occasion by Rev. C. A. Burton. He complimented the institution of Masonry with that of the church and showed in unmistakable terms their lines of convergence, their oneness of purpose, namely the attainment of perfected manhood through a recognition of the fatherhood of God and the Bible as the rule and guide of faith.

He referred to the fact that many had doubtless asked the question why Masons should be invited to lay the corner stone of this church. In the strongest possible manner he then launched into a peroration and showed the common bond between Masonry, standing as it did, before the Christian era, as the one institution through which man groped after perfection, and the church, and then brought out by terse and lucid statement the acceptance by Masonry of the revelation of God through His son. He spoke of the universality of the order, the common level upon which all Masons meet, and the sublime teachings and precepts of the society. He referred to Masonry as the base line and the church as the sky line of all human institutions. He did not put Masonry before the church, but showed clearly how there was a unity of purpose between the two, and of the material greatness possible by a practice of the principles enunciated by both. He showed that the principle of Masonry taught its members to so regulate their lives that their minds would become fitting stones for the temple above, "the house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

The oration of Grand Orator Burton made a profound impression upon all who were fortunate enough to hear it, and his eloquence and power of expression was an appropriate close to an unusual program of exercises.

KING VISITS SECRETARY HAY. Had Nausheim, May 25.—King Leopold came from Eins this morning and spent two hours this afternoon with Secretary Hay.

THE SPORTING WORLD

Beginning in a Catcher. Owing to the loss of the services of Jack Wagner, Manager McGraw was compelled to look about for a new catcher for his New York Nationals.

ROGER BROSNIHAN AS A CATCHER.

Roger Brosnihan, the hard hitting center fielder, having had some previous experience as a backstop, was given a chance to show what he could do.

Roger "made good" and will continue through the season as catcher for the National league champions.

LOU DILLON, 1:58 1-2.

It is understood that Lou Dillon, 1:58½, the trotting queen, is soon to be shipped from California to the east, though exactly when has not been stated. Very interesting reports concerning her present condition come from San Jose, Cal., where she has wintered under the care of Budd Doble, the "owner of the sulky." She was shipped to him last December, and he has devoted most of his time to her ever since then. She now weighs 885 pounds, which is more than ever before, and as she has not been heavily fed it is all hard, solid flesh.

A year ago she was wintered at Memphis and given a complete let-up for weeks, not being harnessed, but Doble has driven her from eight to eighteen miles daily ever since he received her, though so far she has scarcely seen a track and has not been a mile faster than 2:40.

The two minute mare, as is well known, is at once the gentlest and the highest spirited thing of her sex and breed, and her peculiar ways have added much to the wonder that her record breaking has excited. Doble, it is said, has devoted himself studiously to perfecting her manners and with such success that she now jogs quietly at any gait, does not fret or chafe at restraint and seems in many respects a different mare.

OWEN MORAN.

Owen Moran is another English boxer who has just come over and has been taken under the protective wing of the once fairly prominent Thomas O'Rourke, which means that most of the little Englishman's fighting will be done in the New York newspapers. Just what Moran's claims to being a fit opponent to meet any one of the half a hundred American second raters are based upon would be hard to say. To be sure, he has fought Jim Bowker, the little Johnny Bull, who did funny things to the unsated Frankie Neil of San Francisco not long ago, drawing twice and getting licked once, but these performances are hardly sufficient to justify a serious rating for him on this side. It is rather queer he did not get on with Bowker again, since Jim won the championship from the Californian and demonstrated that his defeat by the latter was a fluke and thus fit him as a candidate for a battle with America's ex-champion. It is an odds on bet, however, that Neil or even Harry Forbes can defeat Moran so easily that he will hardly have time to realize that he has landed. These British importations in a fighting way for many years have been jokes.

MANDOLIN CLUB.

A social gathering was given Thursday evening by the members of the Twentieth Century Mandolin club at the home of Edward Hoffman on Walnut street. About sixty young people enjoyed the occasion. Games were played, music was furnished by the club and refreshments were served.

Court House News

The trial of Pearl Brown on the charge of murdering Benjamin F. Wright was called in the circuit court Thursday morning, the jury secured and the evidence taken. The arguments will be made this morning and the case will go to the jury. Brown has entered a plea of not guilty. W. T. Wilson and E. E. Baldwin are defending Brown, under appointment of the court, and State Attorney B. A. VanWinkle is being assisted by Judge C. A. Barnes.

The trouble for which Brown was held for murder occurred on the night of April 1st, on North Sandy street, in the vicinity of Peter Dealy's saloon, where, after a short scuffle, Brown fired the shot which resulted in the death of Wright two days later. There appears to have been trouble between the men previous to that time. It is supposed the defense will ask for acquittal on the ground of self defense.

The trial has attracted considerable interest and the attendance of spectators Thursday was large.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

GRADUATING EXERCISES A FINE OCCASION

Diplomas Awarded to a Large Class of Promising Pupils.

Soon after 6 p. m. Thursday people began making their way to the opera house, for all knew that the high school commencement exercises would attract an audience which would occupy every inch of space in the spacious auditorium. As always the class presented a wonderfully attractive appearance as the members sat on the stage, clad in the most becoming attire and with their bright, intelligent faces presented a sight never to be forgotten. The audience, too, was inspiring and was fully in sympathy with the occasion. Lack of space prevents an extended notice of each number on the program as it would be a pleasure to give.

Miss Marie Leck seated herself at the piano and most skillfully rendered the notes of a march by Hollander, and to the strains of the music the class marched on the stage and took the seats assigned the members. Principal Glasgow introduced Rev. R. O. Post, who offered an earnest and beautiful prayer, after which the Glee club and Treble Clef club sang in an accomplished and attractive manner a chorus song entitled, "How the Music Soundeth," gaining great applause and an encore being granted to which a gracious response was given, "Join in Pleasure."

The salutatory was delivered by Miss Ruth Howell Brown, who chose for her theme "Civic Beauty."

Citizens of Jacksonville: We cordially welcome you to the thirty-third commencement of the high school, for we honor ourselves in so doing. We are grateful to you for the help you have given the cause of education in this high school and the new building you have so generously supplied. These advantages are a stimulus to great achievements to become useful members of society. To love our city we make the city lovelier, for in so doing we are better citizens and persons. Our beautiful city is a just source of pride and her future is in the hands of her people. This is essentially a day of progress, good pavements, well-lighted and shaded streets and many other things. May we not hope for greater things in the future, when larger premises, playgrounds for the children, our park greatly improved, a union railway station, more stateliness in our way stations, better surroundings for the houses, better building and a general spirit of civic beauty?

Manual training furnished the theme for an oration by Carl Edward Warner. Manual training has come to stay in our public schools and no state can afford to ignore its claims for it supplies a knowledge which is of great value. Boys aroused by its stimulus may be induced to remain through the course, when otherwise they would drop out. It is not supposed that it will turn out skilled mechanics, but its work is valuable for no man lives to himself, but all are bound together by ties of obligation which cannot be ignored.

Miss Hazel Mae Brown next favored the audience with a fine violin solo, "Moonlight Serenade," which was superbly rendered by the accomplished young performer, accompanied in an able manner by her sister, Miss Susie. Both were loudly applauded.

Miss Carrie Dunlap chose for the theme of an oration, "Co-operative womanhood in the state." Co-operative womanhood rests on the women of the present day and by co-operation they may accomplish great things. In our state they have done much by acting together in temperance and other times. Frances Willard will long be remembered as the one to begin this great movement and her name will long be held in grateful remembrance. The women of the state thus found themselves promient factors in the commonwealth and have addressed themselves to hygiene and the introduction of domestic science into the schools, and with the most encouraging results, greatly for the benefit of the home; while in morals and sanitation in the schools great progress has been achieved. The social settlement in Chicago is another achievement in this direction with grand results. The day when all will live in peace and harmony is drawing near through the agency of woman's co-operation.

A unique number was an address by Lloyd A. McKinney on "Liquid Air and Its Properties." The address was accompanied by experiments and was well illustrated. Liquid air was shown as it exists in a liquid form. Water exists as vapor, liquid or solid and as other substances. The liquidizing of air is a recent achievement and very interesting. (Here followed an explanation of the manner in which liquid air is produced.) A number of interesting experiments and illustrations followed: Liquid air boiled on ice; alcohol was frozen by it. A rubber ball was made hard and brittle by it; a dipper was made frozen in a strawberrie were soon frozen in a few minutes and the expansive forces of the liquid air were shown as it forced its way into the pores of the state of vapor. Finally a boiler, covered of asbestos and saturated with liquid air, when instantly when liquid air and cotton waste was made to burn with a bright flash. The flamed liquid air was poured on the floor and at once changed into clouds. The properties and possibilities of the substance were then briefly explained.

By request of the class Miss Ailsie Goodrick sang in a highly accomplished and acceptable manner a selection entitled "It was a love and his lass" and the lady was loudly applauded.

Miss Frances Marie Scott, had Wagner's Parsifal for the theme of an oration. Music is for all and has a common language of its own. Parsifal is one of Wagner's greatest, powerful and appeals directly to the hearts of the people. The story it tells and the scenes it depicts, will ever appeal to the hearts of all men.

(Here followed a graphic account of the origin of the Parsifal, well told. Then a glowing description of the production which has held the whole bound so many audiences. The whole succession of scenes was glowingly portrayed in a vivid manner.) Wagner meant Parsifal for a great religious lesson which governs the hearer and expresses the highest ideals of truth and sacrifice.

Miss Ruth-Elmer Fairbank, valedictorian, chose for her theme the question, "Shall we go to college?" The question naturally arises, is our education complete? Many good education can be added why both boys and girls should go to college. Every American girl should have suitable culture so as to be able to take her place in any walk in life to which she is adapted. If educated in a superior woman brings to the home a superior quality of training and an ability to care for her loved ones and rear them suitably. There have been self-made men, but to day it is far better to have a college training for the career of a farmer even and for mostly all of the callings available to all men. Nothing but a higher education can supply the training now so valuable.

Athletics are making a different type of men and women. The college broadens the horizon of every student. The college was never nearer the people or more useful than it is to day. With grateful hearts to the good things of the past we should each answer this all important question wisely and well.

Each young performer did most admirably and the praise to be bestowed on one is due to all. Culture, devotion to study, good teaching and fine ability were all evident.

The high school orchestra then furnished a superb number "The Royal Cher."

Principal Glasgow then briefly addressed the audience, in part as follows:

"Friends and patrons of the Jacksonville high school. We appreciate the kindly interest which brought you here to participate in the crowning event of the high school and in becoming members of the school I, in the active work of the school I wish to extend thanks for the cooperation which you have at all times given. The relations which we as teachers and pupils have sustained during the past year are changed, but they will be no less pleasant. We need not tell you that we regret the loss of your strong, active influence in the school, yet we would not bid you remain, but for your own best interests we must urge you to pass on. Mr. Rutledge, I beg leave to present to you as the representative of the board of education the class of 1905. I commend them to you as having successfully completed their courses in the high school and as being fit to receive the diplomas of the school."

Mr. Rutledge then presented the diplomas with the following words: "Mr. Glasgow and the Class of 1905: I have been given the authority to present to the class their diplomas. To most pupils the day of graduation is a day of thanksgiving and justly so for after going through all the grades of the public schools and then through the high school the diplomas are deserved. This is the turning point in your lives and who knows whether in the past are severed. To-morrow you begin a different life. You have not received all the education which you are capable of taking and I hope that every member of the class will be able to complete their education in one of our home colleges."

The exercises were concluded with the benediction by Rev. R. O. Post. The program of the evening was as follows:

Fashion's Latest Models in Low Shoes

Who says Low Shoes are not popular? With us the demand for them eclipses all former seasons. When you give the matter a clear, sober thought they are really the most sensible thing for Summer wear; always cool and comfortable.

Buttons are "it" this season. A new button just arrived in the new dull leather. It is a nobby thing. A lace or button in the popular dull leather is quite the thing. All the leathers are represented in our collection of styles in buttons. Let us show you our new styles in Low Shoes before selecting. All styles, leathers and prices.

AT CENTRAL HOSPITAL.

The Central hospital attendants' base ball team defeated the Jacksonville "Reds" Wednesday by a score of 20 to 6. This is the second team to go down in defeat before the hospital team, as the high school met defeat by a score of 10 to 11 last Saturday. The hospital team is not so "easy" as many seemed to imagine, and the local teams have found this out to their sorrow. The games are witnessed with much interest, the crowds of patients and employees entering fully into the spirit of the game. It proves a great diversion and if the visiting teams would only make a real effort to win, which they do not do, the pleasure in the sport would be much enhanced. The hospital boys would rather lose a well played game than win a poorly played one. Buckhorn will play Saturday and a good contest is expected.

The Central hospital grounds have never appeared more beautiful than at the present time.

The handsome fountain in course of construction in front of the main entrance is rapidly nearing completion.

Concrete walks are being laid on the south side of the grounds. When finished they will complete the walks running about the entire enclosure.

Miss Taylor, of the night watch force, is taking a vacation.

Mr. Bonbow, the clarinet player, has accepted a position in Brooks' Chicago Marine band. His place at the hospital will be taken by Mr. Canterbury, who comes from the Soldier's home at Milwaukee.

Jack Devlin, of this city, is playing cornet with the hospital orchestra.

The delightful concert recently given at the hospital by Jeffries' Concert band is still a pleasant memory. The treat was much appreciated.
